Mr. James M. Frey
Assistant Director for Legislative Reference
Office of Management and Budget
Washington, D.C. 20503

Dear Mr. Frey:

Enclosed are identical letters to Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman
Thurmond and Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Chairman Goldwater, expressing concern that S. 1630, the "Criminal Code Reform Act of 1981," could have an adverse impact on lawful U.S. intelligence activities.
Your advice is requested as to whether there is any objection to the submission of these letters from the standpoint of the President's program.

Sincerely,

Associate General Counsel
